

1. What was the analogy the Giver gave with the first memory he sent to Jonas?

2. Give two reasons why the Giver is in possession of all the books.

3. What did Jonas do that he didn't even tell the Giver?

4. Jonas' science instructor taught his class about how the brain works. The Giver replied with an angry statement. What did he say?

They know nothing

5. Why is the Receiver the only one holding the memories?

6. Discuss the difference between honor and power. Which one does the Receiver possess that allows him to do his job?

7. When the Giver was discussing his advising the committee on increasing the population, what two events followed hunger? starvation, warfare

8. What happened to the last Receiver in training? What happened to her memories?

9. Jonas broke his leg in one memory. Give two of the three good memories the Giver sends him at the end of his sessions.

*sailboat sunset
wildflowers
sunrise Rainbow*

10. What wisdom did Jonas gain readily that took the Giver awhile to acquire?

question the way things are choice - doing away w/50 must.

Bonus - what exactly happens when a memory is passed to the Receiver?